Mr. C. L. Burrill
Director, Program Division
Petroleum Administration for Defense
Department of the Interior
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Mr. Burrill:

I have just returned from a trip abroad which has been the cause for delay in answering your letter of 9 May. I was very sorry to receive your resignation from the Petroleum Intelligence Advisory Group and I want to express my sincere appreciation for your valuable assistance both to members of my office and to various components of the Economic Intelligence Committee.

I hope we shall have the pleasure of working with you again at some time in the future.

Sincerely yours,

Robert Amory, Jr.
Assistant Director
